Hailing from the vibrant city of Detroit, Damon Fletcher is an exceptional artist who has carved his own path in the music industry. Drawing inspiration from renowned performers like Usher and LL Cool J, Damon has honed his skills and created a captivating music performance career.

During the challenging times of the global pandemic, Damon found solace and motivation while sitting at home. Fueled by his passion for music, he transformed his living space into a creative hub, crafting his unique sound and connecting with fans worldwide.

Damon's latest release, "24 the EP," showcases his immense talent and features the brilliant production of Grammy award-winning producer Zaytoven. With a seamless fusion of R&B and hip-hop, the EP delivers infectious beats, heartfelt lyrics, and a captivating energy that sets Damon apart in the industry.

Damon performed at the Capital Pride Festival with 9K people in attendance --- the largest crowd in Capital Pride history.

As an artist, Damon is committed to delivering authentic and relatable music that resonates with listeners. His lyrics and dynamic stage presence create an immersive experience that leaves audiences captivated and craving for more.

With his Detroit roots deeply embedded in his music and lyrics, Damon pays homage to his city's rich cultural heritage, infusing his sound with a distinctive flavor. His music reflects both the struggles and triumphs of everyday life, offering a powerful and uplifting narrative that resonates with a diverse audience.

"24 the EP" has been streamed over 6K times on Spotify since its release. Damon's re-lease during the pandemic called "Hustle with a Purpose" has amassed almost half a million views, and the follow up single, "2 Miles" has almost 1 million streams on Spotify, since its October 2020 release.

Damon transitioned to professional stardom after an IG live with Ne-Yo, which led to his collaboration with Zaytoven for "24 the EP." Along with receiving accolades from industry heavyweights, he was featured on Hollywood Unlocked in an exclusive interview with Jason Lee.

Damon's second EP is due out this fall.
